In Our 62nd Year

SILHOUETTE

Our spring production – Simon Brett's whodunit 'Silhouette' – is well under way, with rehearsals in full swing.

If you still fancy helping (and, please Members, we can always use it) contact the director, Jacquie Spencer or Michael Black.

We have had a cast change as a result of Jeanette having to pull out through injury (no, the rehearsals haven't been that dangerous). Caroline Harbord has stepped in to the role of Celia Wallis and is doing a great job of this demanding part.

Remember: Performances are on 9-11 March 2006.

We need you, the Members, to go out to try and rally together friends and family to sell tickets to what is going to be a very entertaining production (trust me – I'm at the rehearsals). What we intend to do is something that was a great success in the past. We'll post 10 tickets to every club member (and selected supporters), with a request to sell them.

We look forward to your keen support for this show.

Ticket prices are £7.50, with concessions of £6 per ticket (this includes groups of 4+).

AUTUMN PRODUCTION

Yes, that's right. We are now on the lookout for suggestions for the Autumn production.

We will consider all offers, but we'd prefer a comedy - eg by Alan Ayckbourn - as we feel this is what would most likely attract large audiences.

Deadline to contact Michael Black (so it can be decided and advertised in the programme for 'Silhouette') is 17 February, 2006.

Burns supper

Friday 27th January (that's this Friday, folks) at Ronald's.

In preparation Ronald has headed North, to his birthplace, to fetch those Scottish delicacies, haggises (but there'll be vegetarian alternatives, too).

You don't need to bring any food. All you need to bring is something to drink to be able to join in the fun.

Ronald (no, that's not him above's) address is 32 Huntingdon Road, Brampton.

The supper starts at 8pm.

Please advise of numbers by Wednesday (25th Jan) by:

E-mail: _____

as Ronald needs to know the number to cater for.

CLUB AGM

Monday, 27 February, at 8 pm, Minerva Room at the Commemoration Hall (venue to be confirmed in the agenda).

Please send nominations for the committee and any motions to the secretary, Ray Livermore. Nominations should be proposed and seconded by Club members, and have the written agreement of the person concerned. Nominations can also be made orally at the AGM.

The AGM is open to anyone interested, but only people who have paid the membership fee at or before the AGM will be able to stand for the committee or to vote.

The agenda will be circulated approximately 10 days before the date of the AGM.

Other important items

1. Jo Gray (now Dean), a former Club member (performed in 'Ghost Train' and 'Loot', among other plays), has published two very entertaining novels, 'Forty Not Famous' and 'Stage Left' - rather like Bridget Jones, but raunchier.

For more information, visit www.jodean.co.uk.

2. And a company called Clubs for Children that runs drama classes in local schools has asked us for drama tutors. For more information, contact Mark (not our newsletter editor!) on 01509-504556.
