In Our 62nd Year

“MOVE OVER MRS MARKHAM”

15 people auditioned for the 9 parts in the play, which is very encouraging for the Club. Many thanks to all of you, and sorry you can't all be given a part. Particular thanks to those who have offered to help backstage instead. Here's the cast:

- Joanna (Life was so much simpler when there was only shopping to think about) Markham – Caroline Harbord
 - Philip (Wouldn't anyone be bored after 15 years of marriage to him?) Markham – Chris Topham
 - Linda (What did she get up to in Derry and Tom's roof garden?) Lodge – Carol Wadey
 - Henry (a slave to his authors) Lodge – Mark Lamberth
 - Alistair (Not even just a little bit gay?) Spenlow – James Godwin
 - Sylvie (Swiss goosing champion) Hauser – Kat Sexton
 - Olive Harriet (devoted to her bow-wows) Smythe – Jeanette Brown
 - Felicity Jane (Life's more fun if you seize every opportunity) Wilkinson – Kelly Mason
 - Walter (seething with passion beneath a dull exterior) Pangbourne – Ronald Stevenson
- Director: Michael Black
Assistant director: Kevin Webb
Producer: Ann Monk

Rehearsals will initially be mostly on Thursdays, starting on 22 June, and anyone is welcome to come along. Contact Michael to check dates and venues.

Please start telling everyone you meet about the play, which will be performed on 9-11 November in the Commemoration Hall.

Fun Make-up and Hair Workshop

(for every age, sex and ability)

When: Thursday, 13th July.

Where: Huntingdon Commemoration Hall Dressing Room.

What Time: 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m.

Experts Jan Sheppard and Carol Wadey will be on hand to demonstrate and everyone will be able to “have-a-go”, as well as have a drink and socialise.

Just bring your face (and hair) to the dressing room of the Commemoration Hall as well as any questions you might have.

This is an opportunity not to be missed!

Social Events

“Last of the Summer Wine” party – 16th September in Ronald's backyard (weather permitting – inside if not). More details to follow but pen this onto the calendar.

Royal Shakespeare Theatre Productions – a visit to Stratford to watch one of the many productions put on by the RSC. The plan would be to see a Saturday performance in October. Again, more details will follow in later issues of this newsletter.

Shakespeare DVD evening – proposed as a “winter warmer” this evening will be a good excuse to socialise with other members as the winter chill creeps in. Proposed for November with more details to follow.

Pre-Christmas party – again another excuse for members to get together and socialise, sharing their experience/inexperience from the year. Expected to be for 9th December 2006 so please note this in your calendar.
