

Dramatic News Dramatic News

June 2005

www.huntingdondramaclub.org.uk

FALLEN ANGELS - WHAT A SUCCESS!

Jeanette Brown (Jane), Kelly Armstrong (Saunders) and Carol Wadey (Julia) were fantastic, engaging the audience and invoking many a laugh over the three consecutive nights.

Mark Lamberth (Fred) and Ronald Stevenson (Willy) played the "doting" husbands about to be duped by.....

Maurice, played superbly by the suave Nick Hemens.

CONTACT DETAILS

Mark Lamberth, Editor on
Michael Black, Chair on 01480 454486

For details of past, present or future productions:
www.huntingdondramaclub.org.uk

In Our 61st Year

Over the three consecutive nights an audience of over 160 people were thoroughly entertained.

Thanks again to the people behind the scenes who helped make everything happen. They include Chris Hunnam, Kevin Attwood, Peter Sweeney and Pete Welsh for their work on the set, Rachael Orchard for production and Ruth Morgan for ... well ... everything and anything as she helped with many aspects. But a very big thank you to Michael Black for his committed and spectacular direction over the months leading up to the production. Michael brought the cast together superbly!

Calls out for the AUTUMN Production!!

If you would like to direct our autumn production and you've got a particular play in mind – or even if you haven't, but might be interested in directing, alone or with someone else – please contact one of the committee (including me) no later than 19 June 2005.

The committee plans to choose the autumn production on 6 July 2005.

If you'd like further details please contact either Michael or me on the numbers given below.

HELP, HELP, HELP BELLOWING FOR BELLOWS !!

We need to borrow a hand-held set of bellows for the Mummings Play in order to bring one of the key characters back to life

! If you know of a relation, friend, colleague, acquaintance, somebody you'd like to meet (etc.) who'd be willing to lend us these until August we'd be extremely grateful. Contact me on the number below!

Other events coming soon

Mummings' play:

Rehearsals for the Mummings' play are well under way. Huntingdon Drama Club will be performing a Mummings' Play over the summer months, including Peterborough Drama Festival and as part of the Hunts 800 celebrations during the performance of Kings and Liberties.

The performance will also be part of the entertainment in the mediaeval banquet 6 August and at the George Hotel 7 August.

Kings & Liberties (part of the Huntingdon 800 celebration):

A number of club members are involved in this grand production as part of town's celebration. The dates for this are 30 July and 5 August and entry is gained through the purchase of the souvenir programme that will be on sale soon.

BBQ:

Ronald is holding an "End of summer" barbecue (32 Huntingdon Rd, Brampton or if wet, indoors at Michael's, 28 Huntingdon Road). 1 pm on 3 September. Further details to follow.

WRITE TO:

