

Dramatic News Dramatic News

May 2005

www.huntingdondramaclub.org.uk

In Our 61st Year

Spring Production – May 19, 20 & 21

– ONLY 3 DAYS TO GO!

Firstly a big thank you to all those who helped bring the set together on Friday 13th and Saturday 14th May. A great job was done by all; particularly those who offer their services and don't get the recognition they deserve, including Chris Hunnam, Kevin Attwood, Peter Sweeney and Pete Welsh.

Cast pictured above are (from left to right) Jeanette Brown, Ronald Stevenson, Mark Lamberth, Carol Wadey and Kelly Armstrong. All cast members have been working particularly hard in the lead-up to the play's opening night, often until late in the evening

So, if you haven't got your tickets yet, book now, while there are still seats left. We'd love to see you there and it will, undoubtedly, provide for a very entertaining night.

CONTACT DETAILS

Mark Lamberth, Editor on
Michael Black, Chair on 01480 454486

For details of past, present or future productions:
www.huntingdondramaclub.org.uk

Ticket Sales

Tell your neighbours (as I have been doing), your friends and your family. Tickets are £8 with concessions at £6. Book online at: www.huntingdondramaclub.org.uk, call the ticketline on: or visit The Card Gallery in Huntingdon.

Club member acting with Ralph Fiennes!

Gary Mackay has just been in the highly praised Barbican production of Julius Caesar, along with Ralph Fiennes, Fiona Shaw and Simon Russell Beale.

Ralph Fiennes as Mark Antony (Telegraph)

Gary was one of our members for several years, and was Chair of the club. He acted in several productions, including On the Razzle and Rope - which he also directed - and in 2001 he directed Journey's End. (Remember there are details of our productions on our website). Having decided on a career change, Gary then went to drama college, and is now picking up parts in professional productions.

Maybe we'll soon be able to say, 'Huntingdon Drama Club - springboard to greatness'.

Other events coming soon

Mummers' play:
Calling all Mummers!! Huntingdon Drama Club will be performing a Mummers' Play over the summer months, including Peterborough Drama Festival and as part of the Hunts 800 celebrations - please pass this on by word of mouth to all interested parties in the traditional folklore storytelling fashion!

An evening of horseracing and music at Huntingdon Racecourse: 7 June.

This commences with the first race at 6:05pm and concludes with an hour of music from The American Drifters (tribute band to The Drifters), who will sing such hits as "Stand by me" and "Up on the Roof " for approx. 1 hr after the last race.

Prices are £16 for the Members Enclosure and £12 for The Paddock. There is also the potential for a bite to eat afterwards.

Contact Ronald () for more information on either of these events.

WRITE TO:

