

Huntingdon Drama Club

The Hound Of The Baskervilles

Press Release

November 2012

The world's most famous literary detective arrives at the Commemoration Hall for Huntingdon Drama Club's production of the classic thriller The Hound Of The Baskervilles.

The play, adapted by Tim Kelly from the story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, relocates Sherlock Holmes & his trusty companion Dr Watson from Baker Street to desolate Dartmoor to investigate the mysterious events at Baskerville Hall and the presence of the deadly hound.

Directed by Kelly Mason, the play features Scott Hutchison & Michael Black as Holmes & Watson and Dean Laccohee as Sir Henry Baskerville. John Morgan & Jeanette Brown appear as the Hall's servants, Mr & Mrs Barrymore & Tony Burrin is Dr Mortimer. The cast is completed by Jane Crittenden as Laura Lyons, Sharon Reed as Kathy, Ronald Stevenson as Jack & newcomer Graeme Parker as Perkins.

The stories of Sherlock Holmes are enjoying something of a revival at the moment with new movies starring Robert Downey Jr in the title role as well as the hugely successful BBC TV series starring Benedict Cumberbatch.

The show runs at the Commemoration Hall, Huntingdon from the 22nd until the 24th of November, curtain up at 7.30pm. Tickets are available through the club website huntingdondramaclub.org.uk, or via their Facebook page, by telephone on 01480 454486 or on the door.
